Character Guide

The Wild Card

STRAP TOGETHER YEARS OF CAPRICIOUS whims and brash decisions, and you have Sera. Her motley of well-loved and oft-repaired odds and ends is far from tatters and rags. She wears what she likes for as long as she likes it, and should she like something else, she'll steal it.

What little practicality her outfit has is the result more of annoyance than of planning. When hair got in her eyes, she hacked it off with a knife, and when arrows stung her fingers, she found a glove. Sera's only concern is having fun, and should something get in the way of that pursuit, she's quick to put an arrow in it.
